

Curry Controls Company SCADA/HMI and Programmable Controller deployment in processing environments is diverse. Industry solutions involve PLC and DCS systems with associated primary instrumentation to control temperatures, pressures, flows, weights, measures, batches, security, and other forms of material handling and inspection automation.

CCC has a depth of experience in the technologies applicable for the pharmaceutical environment. Water and waste water process control and other related utility functions are an integral part of these applications.